

The Pocahontas Times.

VOL. XLI NO. 5

MARLINTON, POCAHONTAS COUNTY WEST VIRGINIA, SEPTEMBER 14, 1922

$1.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

CORNER STONE LAID

The corner stone of the new Methodist Church was laid by the Masons last Thursday afternoon with proper ceremonies.

The speech was delivered by Hon. H. T. Spears, of Elkins, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of West Virginia, Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons. It was a masterly address. Rev. Register Neel, of Alderson, also spoke. He was in charge of the campaign to raise the money to build this church last spring, which resulted in subscriptions totaling $60,000.

The new church will be the finest building in Marlinton and one of the best churches in this part of the State. The building will be 60x109 feet, of brick and concrete construction, faced with cream colored brick. With galleries and all, the auditorium will seat a thousand people. W. W. Kennison is the contractor.

The building replaced by the new church was erected in 1896. The relics in the old corner stone were taken out and placed in the new corner stone. The relics consisted of a Bible, Hymn Book, Book of Discipline, Christian Advocate, Pocahontas Times, and a list of the church officers. All had been badly damaged by water, and the paper on which the church officers were listed was in pulp. However, from The Times, we learn that Rev. George H. Echols was pastor; Trustees, G. F. Crummett, Uriah Bird and Thomas Courtney, Lloyd Moore, James A. McCollam, E. A. Smith and H. A. Yeager. Building Committee: H. A. Yeager, Uriah Bird and E. A. Smith. Of them, all remain until this day except Mr. McCollam and Mr. Yeager.

The old Pocahontas Times in the corner stone was dated August 7, 1896. It appears therein that Hon. William J. Bryan was running on the Democratic ticket for President of the United States; M. J. McNeel for house of delegates; L. M. McClintic for prosecuting attorney; J. H. Buzzard for assessor; S. L. Brown for county clerk. Pocahontas county was claiming the democratic nomination for State Senate as usual and E. I. Holt was the aspirant.

J. C. Arbogast was sheriff with R. K. Burns as his deputy sheriff; L. M. McClintic was prosecuting attorney; S. L. Brown, county clerk. The Board of Health was composed of Dr. J. W. Price, L. M. McClintic, M. J. McNeel and J. C. Arbogast.

At the head of the editorial column was the following: "The free silver craze is sweeping the state and weeping. The State needs a sweeping."

"Up to the time of the building of the church in 1896 the congregation worshipped in the Presbyterian church and the relations between the different denominations are most cordial." And so they remain to this day.

Among other things chronicled in that issue of The Times is the meeting of the levy term of the County Court. The items in the levy were, depositum $1000; juries, $800; roads, $2,000; overdrafts, $2,570.62; house on poor farm, $1,000. A levy of 55 cents was laid. W. H. Grosse and Geo. P. Moore made the settlement with the sheriff that year.

Among the advertisers were Paul Golden, W. J. Killingsworth, L. D. Sharp and the Marlinton Drug Store, W. B. Ricketts, proprietor. This is now the Royal Drug Stores, with a number of branches over the State.

A big oat crop was reported, and it was expected that oats would sell at 20 cents a bushel.

There were a number of articles from the pen of the late Dr. Wm. T. Price. In one of them he commented on the unsurpassed mountain scenery and healing waters in and about what is now called the Minnehaha Springs region. He referred to it as the Driscoll neighborhood.

The church paper in the stone was the Baltimore Christian Advocate of the date of July 29, 1896. Its editor was Rev. J. S. Hutchison. We believe he was afterwards presiding elder of this district, Lewisburg. From it we learn that Rev. J. D. Martin was the presiding elder of Lewisburg District at that time. The paper was so badly damaged that little of it was readable. Here is one of the editorials: "The church makes a great mistake when it assumes that her only mission is the souls of men, and turns over to Masons and Odd Fellows the work of dispensing benefactions to their bodies." If that editor is yet alive, he can see in the plan of the church now building large provisions for community service.

This writer refrains from reviving the jokes in either the Times or the Advocate by reprinting them. Suffice it to say they were too old to bury twenty-six years ago.

The relics deposited in the new stone by the Masons were sixteen in number as follows: A New Testament with historical sketch of the Methodist Church in Marlinton and how this big enterprise was made possible; Copies of the current issues of the Baltimore Southern Methodist, Marlinton Methodist, and Pocahontas Times. Lists of the officers of the Pocahontas County Sunday School Association; stewards and trustees of the Methodist Church; officers of the Womens Missionary Society; members of the Building Committee, names of contributors to the building of the church and the amount subscribed; names of members of Ladies Aid; A Peace dollar; compliments of the Bank of Marlinton; Emblem of State Bankers Association; thimble Liberty Loan button; Survivors emblem; list of officers and members of Marlinton Lodge No. 127, A. F. and A. M.

Pastor—Rev. Fred B. Wyand. Board of Stewards—C. A. Yeager, G. F. Crummett, W. A. Eskridge, C. J. Richardson, F. M. Sydnor, W. J. Yeager, E. M. Richardson, S. J. Rexrode, Fred Gehauf, B. B. CALF CLUB PROJECT

The Pocahontas County Hereford Breeders' Association will distribute Hereford heifer calves among boys and girls in this county at the farm of F. P. Kidd at Hillsboro, on the evening of October 2, 1922.

Club members entering this project will be protected according to understanding listed as follows:

1. Calves will be of such breeding, quality, uniformity and condition to pass the requirements of the extension animal husbandry specialist.
2. All calves will be insured against death until the sale at the Pocahontas County Fair next fall.
3. All calves will be vaccinated against black leg with the life treatment aggression at the time they are put out to club members.
4. Each club member will be furnished a tabulated pedigree to the fifth generation.
5. Each club member will be mailed a complimentary copy of the American Hereford Journal for a period of one year.
6. Prizes will be awarded as follows: 1st, $35; 2nd, $30; 3rd, $25; 4th, $20; 5th, $15; 6th, $12; 7th $10; 8th, $8; and $5 for each thereafter.
7. To guarantee that no club member shall lose money on his calf project work, that is to say, if any calf should fail to bring in the sale an amount equal to the united cost of the calf, plus cost of feed, and six per cent interest on the cost of the calf that the deficit will be made up to the club member owning said calf providing said member has met the requirements as outlined in the first year calf project circular, and fulfilled his contract.
8. A calf sale will be held at the next year's fair. All calves will be sold at public auction and the club member will be given the privilege of bidding in his own calf if he so desires and pay only the original cost price.
9. The club member agrees to give either his personal note for the cost of the calf, payable on the day of this calf sale, or pay cash in hand.

To care for his calf well and carry out his project in accordance with the requirements outlined in this project circular and suggestions given by the county agent and extension animal husbandry specialist or his authorized representative.

To exhibit his heifer at the annual calf show in competition with the other club heifers.

Boys and girls between ten and eighteen years of age who desire to enter this project should make formal application in writing to the county agent, Marlinton, W. Va., before September 25th. State your training and experience that cause you to believe that you can succeed with the calf club project as follows:

In school: (state the grade that you will enter this fall and the number of years that you have spent in school work)

In club work: (whether you are just starting club work or if you have previously carried out a project, the prizes or profit made)

On the farm: (Have you ever fed or cared for cattle. Housing conditions, (kind of house) Available pasture; blue grass, clover, etc.; available feeds.)

George Algar Wanless and Miss Minnie Anna Kesler of Cass were married at the Methodist parsonage, Wednesday Sept. 13, 1922 by Rev. F. B. Wyand.

The venerable Samuel McCarty started for his home in Vermont Monday afternoon. He was accompanied by his son, C. J. McCarty, who will spend a few weeks in Vermont.

The six year old son of J. J. McNeill, blacksmith, was kicked in the head by a horse at the shop Saturday. Fortunately he escaped with a large bruise on the forehead.

J. L. Baxter went to Columbus on Wednesday on business with the Ford Motor Co.

Rev. H. H. Orr will preach at three o'clock next Sunday afternoon at Indian Draft.

French Hoover and Reed Moore each bought a purebred registered Shorthorn bull at Lewisburg last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hudson passed Marlinton on Monday on their return to their home at Landesburg, after a visit to relatives in the Greenbank District.

J. E. Sheets underwent a very serious operation at the Marlinton Hospital last Thursday. He stood it well and is now making a good recovery.

The meeting being conducted at the Huntersville Presbyterian church will come to a close this next Sunday night. The meeting is being well attended.

Rev. W. C. Neel who has been supplying the Presbyterian churches on Knapp's Creek, will leave next Monday for his home preparatory to returning to Seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Carter, Mrs. Susan Carter and Mrs. O. D. Warwick were called to Huntington last Saturday by the extreme illness of Edward Carter who died on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Hench left Saturday morning for across country trip. They will go to Iron Gate and from there to other Virginia points spending some time at one of the coast resorts. Ewell Wiley accompanied them as far as Clifton Forge enroute to Farmville, Va., where he will enter Hampden Sydney College next week.

Little Miss Virginia Dearing fell and broke a bone in her arm last Saturday afternoon. This is the third time she has broken her arm in the past three months.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Campbell and Miss Georgia Lockridge were in Highland last week to attend the marriage of Rev. B. L. Wood and Miss Lena Mary Campbell which occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Campbell, at Valley Center on September 5, 1922.

PETIT JURORS

The following citizens are summoned to appear before the Judge of the Circuit Court for Pocahontas County on the 3rd day of October, 1922, to serve as petit jurors for the October term of said court.

Harry Froize, Frank Hughes Mack Thompson, Wm. N. Buzzard, J. C. Boggs, Simpson E. Gragg, E. L. Curtis, Frank Jordan, Joel Beard, Arlie Wimer, A. G. Nell, Clyde Tracy, A. C. Puse, Ward E. Harper, Raymond Gibson, Dock R. Vaughn, Eugene Kelley, Clyde Hevener, Muley P. Moore, Theodore Moore, C. V. Blackhurst, S. D. Kirk, Winfred McIlwee, Ballard McLaughlin, Oscar Latt, Kenna Rexrode, Bennett McNeill, J. Ed. Taylor, Clifford C. Ervine, J. H. Tallman, C. A. Little, R. A. Starks, J. W. Townsend, Chas. A. Kramer, S. P. Landis, Forrest H. Dean, Dallas Jordan, Ivan L. Sharp, J. A. Shinnberry, J. H. Lightner, Jacob Caraway, Everett Snedegar, Porter Sharp, W. H. Alderman, Clarence Kellison.

A special term of grand jury court was in session last Tuesday and Wednesday. The following citizens composed the grand jury: Charles J. Spencer, C. C. Wanless, S. H. Johnson, Osborne Tracy, Amos Doyle, J. B. Buckley, J. C. Harper, Jake Cogar, Luther McNeill, P. L. Carter, J. C. Haupt, C. C. Heil, Edgar Smith, Lee Moore, Ewell Kramer, and Ashby Sharp. Four felony indictments and 21 indictments for misdemeanors were returned. The jury finished its labors and adjourned Wednesday evening.

Chancery Orders

McNeill v. Darnell, sale confirmed. Mr. and Mrs. J. Luther McNeill. State v. Moss Shifflet, dismissed.

Andrew Price Trustee v. Rosen, sale of goods and junk confirmed to George Rosen, and store rented to George Rosen.

J. W. Goodsell, Exec. v. Freeman, sale of land confirmed to Edward Freeman and wife.

KNOX-BAXTER

The home of Mrs. Margaret Baxter at Onoto, the bride's mother, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday last week. At two o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Frank Baxter. The music continued softly throughout the ceremony. They were received at the bridal arch by the Rev. H. H. Orr of Marlinton, the bride's pastor, and with the simple ring ceremony, Mr. Charles Knox of Cannelton, W. Va., and Miss Edith Baxter were pronounced husband and wife. The room was beautifully decorated with both cut flowers and plants.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smith of Spruce; Mrs. Faith Baxter of Cass; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Pritchard, of Dunmore; Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Baxter of Marlinton; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. C. Aldridge; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baxter, Glenn, Dameron and Goldie Barlow, John Simmons, Clay Tallman, Glenn, Margaret and Gray McLaughlin, Lillie and Beatrice Sharp and Goldie Jordan.

After a brief trip to the home of the groom at Fairmont, the young couple will be found in their newly furnished home in Cannelton where the groom is employed as a mining engineer.

Chautauqua closed last Friday night. Taken all in all, it was a very superior one probably the best ever held here. Large crowds attended both afternoon and night. The superintendent J. C. Evans, was an exceptionally able one. The Junior Chautauqua was bigger and better than ever before Chautauqua brings to the town a high class entertainment, and during the week every one old and young, finds something suited to their tastes. But take it all in all, the real benefit is derived by the rising generation, for it brings to them the best speakers of the country and cultivates in them a taste for the best there is in music.

The eight year old son of Page Friel had the terrifying experience of being bitten on the hand by a large copperhead snake last Friday. The boy was gathering vegetables in the garden when the snake struck him. One fang penetrated deeply and tore out a gash which bled freely, which was a benefit, but the hand swelled enormously and there is a shuffling sort. Home remedies of salt and turpentine were applied. The proper treatment for snake bite is to cut the wound, instantly and cause it to bleed freely, suck out poison by mouth. A solution of permanganate of potash should be applied if available, otherwise a salt solution and bathe freely with running water. Also apply turpentine.

Theodore McKenney, of Warwick, this county, together with four other cadets at the Citizens Military Training Camp, Fort Knox, Kentucky, was wounded in the foot by an exploding shell, and is in hospital at Fort Knox. The boys got some unexploded shells in the artillery range to bring home as souvenirs, and in an attempt to remove the fuse the accident occurred. One young man lost both arms; and another a leg. It is reported that McKenney suffered the loss of a part of his foot. The other cadets from this county this year were Earl Carlisle, Henry Astin and Norval McNeill, who returned safely.

DIED

Edward Carter died at his home in Huntington on Sunday, September 10, 1922, after a short illness of about 40 years. His age was about 40 years. Burial on Tuesday at Chapmanville, W. Va. The deceased was the second son of Mrs. Susan Carter, of Marlinton. His father, the late Burton Carter, died about thirty-six years ago. Of his father's family he is survived by his sister Mrs. O. D. Warwick, and his two brothers, M. C. Carter, of Marlinton, and Dennis Carter, of Andersonville, South Carolina. His wife was a Miss O'Farrell of Chapmanville, and they have two children, a son and a daughter, both about grown.

Ballard McCalpin died suddenly while at his work on the Raywood mill September 5, 1922. He was working on the slasher and fell on the chain that runs to the saw. Mr. Beverage, who was near got to him in time to save him from being cut. Willing hearts and helping hands did all that could be done, but in vain. His age is 28 years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCalpin of Stony Bottom. The remains were taken to his home for burial; funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Monroe. The reading was from the 91st Psalm. He leaves to mourn his loss: his wife, father, mother, two brothers and five sisters, all of Stony Bottom. After the service he was laid to rest beside his two little daughters who passed away in July. While we mourn his loss we are glad to know that he was ready for the great exchange to that land beyond. He was a kind hearted boy and loved by all who knew him. A Friend.

A good man and useful citizen was lost to the community in the passing, very suddenly, at his home near Vago, this county, on August 10, 1922, of A. P. Hughes, who was born in Louisa county, Virginia, in 1854, and was married January 6, 1881, to Miss Nancy Catherine Lawrence, to this union there were six children born: J. N. Hughes, Lewisburg; F. L. and C. H. Hughes, of Vago; Mrs. L. S. Kersinger, of Vago, and Mrs. A. L. Bowes, of White Sulphur, now living, and H. W. Hughes who departed this life August 16, 1919.

Mr. Hughes moved with his family from Virginia to Pocahontas county where he resided for a period, and then moved to Greenbrier where he was resided for the last thirty years. He was a man of good deeds, of a cheerful disposition, a loving husband, and kind and indulgent father. He was a member of the Clifton Presbyterian Church, where he found much pleasure in the association of Godly men and women. He stood for high principles of government and for strict adherence to a high moral code within the community and his home, and had a host of friends in both Greenbrier and Pocahontas counties who mourn their loss—Greenbrier Independent.

This church is to have the pleasure of hearing a native of Persia tell something of conditions as they are over there today. Mr. Benjamin and his family were among the refugees who escaped the terrible persecution of the Turks in the recent war. Mr. Benjamin was educated at our Seminary at Columbia, S. C., and comes with the highest testimonials from Dr. Reed, the present moderator of the General Assembly and others prominent in our church. He has a remarkably interesting story and it will be worth while hearing.

Next week will be held the annual meeting of the Synod at Hinton. The Synodical will meet at the same time and place. This will be an important meeting of these bodies as some important matters are to come up.

There will be an ice cream supper at Trinity Church, Frost, on Saturday evening Sept. 23rd, beginning at 7 o'clock. Everybody cordially invited to come and have an evening of enjoyment.

HUNTERSVILLE

The Revival Services began in the Huntersville Presbyterian Church on Thursday night of last week with a comparatively small crowd present, but by Sunday night the church was comfortably filled.

Rev. J. L. Fowle preaches fearlessly and forcefully the truth as it is taught in the Bible. He takes his stand firmly and unequivocally on the fundamentals of the Christian's belief and practice. No small part of the increasing interest in the services is due to his ability as a song leader and soloist assisted by his able pianist, Mr. Martel Tremain. Mr. Tremain also has charge of the afternoon prayer meetings at 3:00 o'clock in the church.

There will be preaching every night thru Sunday Sept. 17th by Rev. Mr. Fowle. If you have not attended any of these services you have missed a great spiritual blessing.

It was a pleasure to see our friend Col. D. A. Fisher, of Huntersville, on the streets of Marlinton bright and early Wednesday morning. He is well and hearty and is as straight as an Indian in spite of the load of nearly ninety years on his shoulders.
